Who we are

We are a team of highly experienced learning and development professionals with a passion and commitment to make a difference, whether on an individual, team or organisational level.

What we do

At CAKE, we specialise in providing coaching, mentoring, leadership and management development solutions. Helping organisations develop and deliver their learning and development strategies, through our innovative, blended learning methodologies.

Our approach to people development is a practical one – with a strong emphasis on inspiration, implementation and application.

We take a long-term view on working with you to build truly collaborative, trusted relationships founded on shared values, passion, and excellence. We believe in making a real difference to both individuals and organisations.

Whether you only have one or two people with a particular development need, or you have an individual that would really benefit from the variety of perspectives gained from learning with their peers from a wide range of different organisations; our open programmes are an ideal way for your managers and leaders to develop a wide array of skill and knowledge.

Many of our open programmes are also available in-house. If you are interested in running one of these programmes in-house, please let us know – we have a passionate team ready to help.

We are committed to keeping up to date with the latest thinking and share that with through our forums, events, and masterclasses. For more information visit our website www.cakepd.co.uk

About

The ILM Level 3 Award in Leadership and Management is a highly interactive and engaging programme that has been designed to equip practising Team Leaders and First Line Managers with the foundation for their formal development in this role. Through this qualification, participants will develop basic management and leadership skills, whilst gaining the necessary knowledge and skills required.

The programme consists of three one-day workshops, which bring together people who are at a similar stage in their management journey; providing a chance to learn together, share experience and relate their learning back to their workplace.

By the end of this programme you will be able to:

- Understand leadership styles and qualities
- Describe the nature, scope and impact of a problem
- Gather and interpret information to solve problems
- Evaluate your options in order to make a decision
- Communicate the vision and strategy to your team
- Effectively motivate and develop your team

About

The ILM Level 5 Award in Leadership and Management is designed especially for practising middle managers, helping them to develop their skills and experience, improve performance and prepare for senior management responsibilities.

As well as providing comprehensive training in a range of people management skills, the programme provides the opportunity to work and learn with other managers from a variety of businesses. Feedback and guidance is provided throughout, enabling managers to increase their self-awareness and apply their learning back to their organisation.

By the end of this programme you will be able to:

- Understand different leadership styles
- Review the effectiveness of your own leadership capability and performance
- Adopt an effective leadership style to motivate staff to achieve your organisational goals, values and objectives
- Effectively and efficiently develop and lead your team

About

Our CMI Level 7 Certificate in Strategic Management and Leadership residential programme allows directors and senior managers to take some time out of their routine and concentrate on their organisational strategy. The programme enables participants to develop their Strategic Leadership, whilst helping them to generate a clear strategic direction for their organisation or business; translating strategy into effective performance. In addition, the programme allows participants to recognise the impact of their leadership style on their organisation, implement a strategic business plan and develop the culture and people strategy for their organisation.

Venue

Wadenhoe House PE8 5SR

This programme is held in the tranquil setting of Wadenhoe House, near Peterborough. Overnight accommodation and dinner is included for the middle night of each module of this programme.

About

Unleashing the power of inclusion.

This event will help you to understand that 'Inclusion' is not just a word that you add into your conversations about equality and/or diversity, inclusion lies at the very heart of high quality sustainable team and organisational performance. Moreover, 'Professionalising your Practice' has to be about enabling organisations to value and develop their people and to help them get more out of their people more of the time.

We will discuss:

- A formula for performance and its implications for coaches and mentors
- Explore different aspects of diversity and the extent to which our understanding of self in this regard can enable us to better support our clients
- Experience two powerful tools that we can use, as coaches and mentors, to enable our clients to see how they can unleash the power of inclusion in their teams

Linbert Spencer OBE has over 40 years experience as a consultant and trainer specialising in inclusion, leadership, performance management, personal development and coaching. Clients have included Weil Gotshel and Manges, Barclays bank, BP, Medtronic, the Gillette Corporation and Royal Dutch Shell. Additionally, Linbert has been advisor to several government departments including FCO, Cabinet Office, the Security Services, Metropolitan Police and the Houses of Parliament and other organisations on leadership and diversity issues and worked as a diversity & inclusion coach to permanent secretaries of two major UK government departments and a senior executive of a global investment Bank.

About

The CIPD recently launched an exciting new networking group called Leaders in Learning for senior Learning and Development professionals in the East of England.

This free to attend network group has initially met on a quarterly basis in London to connect L&D leaders to shape practice and thinking, and is proving very popular with around 400 L&D leaders now on contact.

They have now expanded the network to increase accessibility and involvement.

So how will involvement in this network group benefit you?

- An opportunity to meet with other L&D leaders in the region. Each meeting will focus on a specific theme followed by an OpenSpace style peer discussion
- Listen to and have the chance to be part of short presentations from network members to highlight and showcase innovative practice
- Hear first-hand updates on CIPD research and initiative and be consulted to shape future CIPD L&D initiatives
- Food, wine, refreshments and networking time

If you can't make the dates, but would like to join the network, please contact Shelley at slice@cakepd.co.uk and we'll add you to the future invite list.
